

Sinclair stations use public airwaves free of charge and are therefore required by law to serve public interest. One-sided programs such as "Stolen Honor" do not serve the public interest and are harmful to democracy.